

What is RedLume?

RedLume is an adult-oriented entertainment podcast that interviews people who live and/or work on the 'fringe'. Alex and Blake have conversations with their friends who do everything from working in a brothel to leading porn companies to drug dealing to stripping to independent escorting to swinging to those who've been federally incarcerated and everything in between. This is not your typical 'interview'... this is a 'listen in' on real people, sharing their real stories. It's a judgment-free, agenda-free, look at the lives of people doing things you've only ever heard about.

Who is Alex?

Alex Fury is a lover of the taboo and a liver of life. Formally, Alex is an accomplished business professional, sought after conference speaker, and an author whose spent years trying to figure out what she's meant to do (despite being a top of the food chain Executive, she wasn't fulfilled). This witty gal will make you feel like she's your best friend and the conversations you're hearing through your speakers is really taking place at a cozy bar with cocktails.

Who is Blake?

Blake is a once in a blue moon fellow who's managed to escape the rules and regulations of life to find happiness and adventure. A playful and open-minded soul who still cuddles with his teddy bear at night, even after copious amounts of drinking and debauchery. Blake is explorative and like Alex, has never met a stranger... though sometimes skeptical at first, he warms up quickly and once you're in his circle, you never want to leave. Buckle up, bring your curiosity and join them on this ride into the RedLume.
